A huge well done and thank you:

This week, I have been blessed with seeing the Nativity three times. Each time was better than the last. The children's confidence, resilience, enthusiasm and talent was out of this world! The hard work that was put into the practises certainly paid off. A huge thank you to all of the staff who played a vital role in ensuring that you show was a success. Your hard work has also paid off!

Festive Celebrations:

We are looking forward to the last week of term and having some opportunities to celebrate all of the hard work over the past term. Here are some key dates for your diaries.

- Wednesday 18th December – Christmas Dinner and Christmas jumper day – please order your dinner on MCAS as soon as possible.
- Thursday 19th December – Christmas Party Day – non-uniform – come to school in your party clothes and bring a snack to share. Remember, we are a no nut school!
- Friday 20th December – Carol Service at the Church of the Nativity – 9:30am – parents arrive from 9:15am. Parents to be seated downstairs in the outer aisles.

Cross Country:

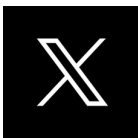

We are really proud of Layla, Xavier, Lumen, Charlie and Jenson who took part in the Cross Country Festival. This was their first race and they all did incredibly well. We are looking forward to the next one in February. I was lucky enough to accompany the children and was so impressed with their self-efficacy and perseverance.

Have a great weekend,

Miss Rebecca Smith.

CRIMINALS ARE USING YOUNG PEOPLE TO SELL DRUGS.

WORKING FOR THEM
NEVER ENDS UP HOW IT FIRST SEEMS.

It might feel like they really care about you because they buy you gifts, give you cash, take you in their car and make you feel like family.

But getting involved with a gang will have a long-term impact on your future. They will want to use you to make money by getting you to do things you don't want to do either because you owe them money or out of loyalty.

You could end up with a criminal record for life or go to jail for selling drugs, holding a weapon, or hurting someone.

Criminals don't care about you, but we do.
